WHAT IT COST MARK.

HANNA HAS PAID OUT $125,000 FOR

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 8.

(Special.)—It is estimated that the recent campaign and election in Ohio has cost Mark Hanna $125,000 up to date, and there is no certainty yet of his securing the United States senatorship from that State. Except the remnant of the fund left over from the last national campaign, nearly all the money came out of his own pocket. He bore the expense of the Congressional Committee here, the Legislative Committee in Ohio, and a committee of negroes in that State, and he sent out over 30,000 personal appeals.

Ex-Commander of the Confederate Veteran Association of this city, Robert Byrd Lewis, died at his residence, 221 P street, yesterday evening about 5 o'clock. He was born in Westmoreland county, Va., in 1841, not far from the birthplace of George Washington. He was a great-grandson of Bettie Washington, a sister of the distinguished patriot, who married General Fielding

Smith and lived throughout the late war, and was a gallant Confederate soldier. He was a graduate of William and Mary College. He will probably be buried at Shepherdstown, W. Va.

WHY WILL PEOPLE ENDURE SO MUCH

When It Can Be Easily Avoided?

"The great American trouble is dyspep- sia. No one realizes this more than the mis- erable sufferers who drag out painful ex- periences. They are not helped by medi- cine and assistance. It calls for nutri- tion, but meets no response, because the stomach is unable to digest food. It is forced into it. What then can the poor sufferer do? It is useless to take more food, because the broken-down stomach cannot take care of what it already has and that is to assist the stomach to properly do the work for which it is created. Do you ask how? The answer is simple. There can be but one way, and that is to help the stomach to itself. Not by drugs, but by mineral water, not even by massaging; but by constant and healthful stimulation. In this way alone can the overworked stomach be brought back to its normal condition. There is but one pure, healthful, and medicinal stimulant now known to the public and the profession, and that is

Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills. This

whiskey should be taken either before, after, or with the meals, and you can readily see how by gently stimulating the stomach. Food is taken, it en- ables the stomach to digest the food and thus prevent dyspepsia and the troubles which follow. It is well for every reader to remember these truths, and also to remem- ber that it is the only medicinal whiskey which can be depended upon to accom- plish just what you most require.

NORFOLK'S CONSPIRACY CASE.

The Argument Closed—The Daugh- ters of the Confederacy.

NORFOLK, VA., November 8.

(Special.)—Argument in the Hall-Cannon-Smith conspiracy case was closed today, and Judge Hancock's decision is now awaited with the greatest interest.

Mr. Eaton Randolph, for the defense, alluded to the southern sentiment that convicted a man in advance charged with any crime affecting a woman's honor. Judge D. Tucker Brooke closed for the defense in an able argument of an hour and a quarter. He said that he did not condone or countenance the action of his clients, but that he was charged with the duty of deciding upon the facts of the case, and that he was not to be influenced by the sentiment of the public. He held that the only conspiracy which had been proved was that of the conspirators against the State, and that the only conspiracy which had been proved was that of the conspirators against the State, and that the only

State, and that the only conspiracy which

TO HAVE A PORTRAIT OF NATHAN

IEL MACON.

That Penitentiary Whiskey—Why So

Much Is Used—Mixed With Genuine.

A Charter Granted—Personal and

General Notes.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 8.

(Special.)—For many years the government and also this State have desired to obtain a portrait of Nathaniel Macon. It is now learned that the long effort seems to be at last successful. Macon persistently refused to allow his portrait to be painted.

The penitentiary authorities say that the large quantities of whiskey they have purchased was for the convicts at work on the Roanoke farms. These are given whiskey and quinine as a daily ration.

It is mixed for them in great quantities, prison officials say, and they add that it this was not done half would be able to work. Chairman Dockery, of the Penitentiary Board, says that last week out of 700 on the roll only about 400 were able to pick cotton.

Monazite mining in this State appears to have ceased. The Brazilian monazite, brought in as ballast, has knocked it out of market. But Senator Pritchard expects the duty of 6 cents per pound which he secured to make the mining of it again very profitable.

The Secretary of State issues a charter to the North Carolina Telephone Company; capital $5,000; principal office at Dunn; corporators, G. K. Grantham, D. H.

McLean, and others.

Among arrivals to-day are Colonel Theodore F. Davidson, ex-Attorney-General, and wife, of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. Judge Robinson, believed whom the mandamus case to compel the State Treasurer to pay the Carter county oyster claims was argued, finds that the claim must be paid.

State Auditor Ayer is right along with the free-press people. He has an annual report to the Governor and North Carolina way, and says so.

Colonel W. H. S. Burgwyn is pressing the matter of having the body of General Thomas L. Clingman finally interred at Asheville, in Buncombe county, which he loved so well.

The people of this city are greatly pleased that Rev. Robert Strange decides to remain at Wilmington. He was for several years rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd here, and is greatly beloved.

Some movement of moment is on the lips among the Populists. It may occur tomorrow. Much secrecy is observed.

It has something to do with the meeting of the Populist State Committee, which is soon to be held, or rather forced to be held.
